[11:54, 30/1/2026] Santosh Sharma: A publication orientation session was organised in our school to familiarise teachers with newly introduced learning resources for English and Social Science (SST). A representative from the publishing house visited the campus and delivered a detailed presentation highlighting the features and academic strengths of the books offered. Using a laptop-based presentation, the publisher explained how the textbooks are designed to support effective teaching and enhance students' understanding through well-structured content and learner-friendly language.

During the session, special emphasis was laid on the accompanying workbooks, which comprehensively cover each topic included in the textbooks. The workbooks were presented as a complete learning package, offering ample practice, reinforcement activities, and assessment-based questions. In addition, the publisher introduced the digital learning platform linked to the publication, demonstrating how teachers can easily access the online portal to frame additional questions, explore answer keys, and utilise a wide range of supporting resources. The session proved to be informative and enriching, as it showcased how the integrated use of textbooks, workbooks, and digital tools can make the teaching-learning process more engaging, effective, and student-centred.

Orient Black Swan Workshop @SSPS

An English Language Teachers' Training Workshop was organized at Saint Soldier Public School, Pratap Nagar, Jaipur, in association with Orient Black Swan. The workshop aimed at enhancing teaching methodologies, updating pedagogical skills, and introducing innovative approaches to make English language learning more effective and engaging in the classroom. The session was highly interactive and provided valuable insights to the participating teachers, helping them strengthen their professional competence.

Principal Ms. Charu Gupta congratulated the team members for taking this meaningful initiative and appreciated their dedication towards academic excellence. She also expressed her best wishes and encouraged the team to continue organizing such enriching programs in the future, wishing them great success in all their future endeavors.

Extramarks Workshop @SSPS

The teachers at Extramarks explained concepts in a clear and structured manner, making learning easier to understand. They were patient, supportive, and always ready to clear doubts. Their teaching methods were engaging and helped in better exam preparation. Overall, the guidance provided by the teachers greatly improved understanding and confidence in the subject.

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP@SSPS

Learning should never stop. A good student is a great teacher. A faculty development workshop based on Integrating Language skills was organized by Orient BlackSwan on Wednesday 18th September 2019 at Saint Soldier Public School, Pratap Nagar. The resource person was Ms. Namrata Pant. The workshop was based on how to develop language skills. How a language teacher can improve the students for upcoming challenges of global language.

How a language teacher can develop LSRW skills and interrelated sub skills. All the queries regarding these were discussed in the workshop. It was completely an interactive session. All the teachers were actively taking part in it. To create the interest and make the session more fruitful some activities like completing the story, drawing picture on the basis of instructions etc. were conducted on Reading, Listening, Speaking and writing skills. It was a wonderful and interactive way to rejuvenate our minds.
